VIRGINIA TO MEET INDIAN TEAM AGAIN

Contest May Be Played on Local Field.

Charlottesville, Va., Dec. 5.—While no action has as yet been taken by the advisory board of the General Athletic Association of the University of Virginia looking to the arrangement of a schedule of football games for next fall, it is almost certain that Virginia will again meet the Carlisle Indians on the Saturday before the annual contest with Georgetown.

Just where the contest with the Indians will be pulled off is not known, but it would not be surprising if the game is scheduled for Lambeth Field. One thing is certain, the Redskins have reserved November 4 next for Virginia. It has long been the desire of the football management to schedule a really big game for the home grounds. Such a contest would serve to arouse the enthusiasm of the student body, and thus the team would be benefited in the long run. Should it not be deemed advisable to play the Indians at the University next fall the contest will undoubtedly go to Washington. The Carlisle team is composed of the Virginia team and the two eleven can generally rely upon drawing a fair crowd there.

Virginia's schedule will, in all probability, be pretty much the same as last year, with the addition, perhaps, of one big team. The annual battle with Georgetown comes on Saturday, November 11, and the season will end with the usual game with the University of North Carolina, in Richmond, on Thanksgiving Day.

Dr. Woodrow in Address. An interesting address was delivered last night by Rev. Dr. Woodrow, of the First Congregational Church, at Typographical Temple, entitled "The profit of the earth for all." The doctor interpreted the present social unrest in all parts of the world as an assertion of rights by the common people.

FREE SAMPLE CURED OLD PERSON'S BOWEL TROUBLE

One of the most remarkable proofs of the unusual laxative merit contained in Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is that it is effective not only in people in the prime of life, but at the extremes of ages. As many letters are received from mothers regarding the cures of children as from men and women of sixty, seventy, and eighty years of age. It must be truly a wonderful laxative.

In the cure of constipation and bowel trouble in old people it has no equal. It corrects the constipation, dispels the headache, biliousness, gas, drowsiness after eating, &c. People advancing in years should see to it that their bowels move freely, and if they do not to take Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. You can prolong your life by healthy bowel action. Clogged bowels invite disease. Women about to pass the menstrual period cannot do better than use Syrup Pepsin several times a week until the bowels are settled to its future condition.

Among the strongest supporters of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin are Mr. W. G. Zorn, of New Decatur, Ala., and Mr. George S. Spaulding, of the National Soldiers' Home, Kansas, both elderly men. The regular size bottles can be bought of any druggist at fifty cents and one dollar, but a free sample bottle can be had by sending your address to the doctor.

Dr. Caldwell does not feel that the purchase of his remedy ends his obligation. He has specialized in stomach, liver, and bowel diseases for over forty years, and will be pleased to give the reader any advice on the subject free of charge. All are welcome to write him. Whether for the medical advice or the free sample, address him Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 511 Caldwell Building, Monticello, Ill.

CHAUFFEURS TO USE PEACEFUL METHODS

Deny Strike Is Contemplated to Enforce Demands.

Declaring that chauffeurs in the employ of the Terminal Taxicab Company have not contemplated a strike and that they will not strike in order to force the company to grant their requests, Charles D. Seals, representative of the Chauffeurs' Union, last night made a statement in which he said the chauffeurs expect to obtain shorter hours and more pay through peaceful methods.

"The requests of the chauffeurs are so reasonable," said Mr. Seals, "that they believe the company will grant the requests without trouble. The requests were not accompanied with a threat of a strike and the chauffeurs do not anticipate striking. The only difficulty thus far has been to obtain the company's consent to listen to the demands of the chauffeurs."

"If the company refuses to recognize a committee representing the union then the chauffeurs will ask that a committee of citizens be selected to decide whether the demands made of the company are just or unjust."

The Terminal Taxicab Company last night issued a statement setting forth its side of the case. In the statement it is said the policy of the company is to employ union and nonunion men, and that the company will refuse to deal with a representative of the union, although it is willing to listen to the requests of the men in its employ.

FIGHTING NEAR BORDER.

Insurrectos Said to Have Concentrated for Big Battle.

El Paso, Tex., Dec. 5.—Although no confirmation has been received of the reported fighting at Ojinaga and other places on the Texas-Chihuahua border, it is credited, however, that troops started on Saturday from the Orient train at Palomir, only 100 miles south of Ojinaga. This news has been received here from Chihuahua, from which place the troops were dispatched.

The reports that firing has been heard over the line from Mexico come from Terlingua, Chisos, Hacienda, and several other points near the Texas-Mexican border in this region. It has been reported for some time that insurrectos were congregating and a battle was not unexpected.

The Mormon colonists at Colonia Dublan, and Colonia Juarez, south of here, have enrolled every man from fourteen to seventy years of age in a home guard and all are drilling daily. A request to import rifles has been granted by Gov. Sanchez, of Chihuahua, and 150 rifles were shipped to day to that place by an El Paso company on orders of the Mexican federal government yesterday.

Two more regiments of infantry and cavalry have been sent from the City of Mexico to re-enforce the troops in Chihuahua. Despite rumors to the contrary, the government insists that the trouble in the north is not important and that it will shortly be entirely subdued.

"Good Citizenship" Is Topic.

All Christian Endeavor societies in the District were represented last night at a meeting of the District of Columbia Union, held at St. Paul's English Lutheran Church. Following Rev. C. P. Wile's lecture on the effect of Christian Endeavor work on good citizenship, three intermediate Christian Endeavor societies were taken into the union last night.

They were from the Mount Pleasant Congregational Church, the Berwyn Presbyterian Church, and St. Paul's English Lutheran Church. The report of the Christian Endeavor societies was taken into the union last night.

Want Waiting Stations.

The North Washington Citizens' Association, in session last night, passed a resolution asking the Washington Railway and Electric Company to install waiting stations at North Capitol and West Capitol streets and at North Capitol street and Massachusetts avenue. It was proposed to amend the constitution, consolidating the office of secretary and treasurer and making the position a salaried one.

West End Camp Elects.

West End Camp, No. 1289, M. W. A., elected officers at their regular meeting, held at Pythian Temple, last night, as follows:

Counsel, J. Harry Atchison; adviser, C. G. Geiger; banker, George B. Jaskie; clerk, J. William Harrington; escort, R. J. Cooley; physician, Dr. B. E. Gibbs; watchman, R. S. Donaldson; sentry, E. S. Atchison, and member of board of managers for three years, Lewis Hodges.

Pastor Urges "Square Deal."

Dr. C. Herbert Richardson, pastor of Garrett Park Methodist Episcopal Church, of Baltimore, spoke last night of the "Square Deal" at Ryland M. E. Church, Tenth and D streets southwest. His lecture was the first of the series which will be held during the present week in honor of the reopening and rededication of the church, which has been closed for four months.

Addresses Academy of Sciences.

The Washington Academy of Sciences heard an interesting lecture last night at the Cosmos Club delivered by Dr. Eugen Oberhummer, professor of history and geography at the University of Vienna. Dr. Oberhummer talked of the man race, and showed by his charts and slides that the present population of Europe is entirely made up of descendants of the Africans and Mongolians.

Lectures on Citizenship.

William P. Upshaw, editor of the Golden Age, lectured last night on citizenship at the Fifth Baptist Church, where he has been conducting revival meetings for the past ten days.

BOARD IN CHARGE OF CHURCH WORK

tions of privacy that have so far characterized the shaping of events under the hand of the directors. There will be absolutely no publicity attached to the service. Nobody but the household which has surrounded Mrs. Eddy in her years of residence in New Bedford, and a few very close members of the family, and the directors of the Mother Church will be in attendance.

The service will be conducted by First Reader Smith, of the Mother Church, and it will follow a warm which he himself is free to devise.

Buried Under Altar.

That the body of Mrs. Eddy will find its last resting place in the crypt under the altar of the mother church is the belief to-night of many of those prominent in the denomination.

No intimation to that effect would be given out by any in authority, but so far as could be learned no arrangements have been made to take the body of Mrs. Eddy's birthplace, at Bow, N. H., or to Concord, N. H., where she so long resided.

A woman in high standing in the church circles said to-day there was a general understanding among the church at large that the body would rest in the crypt.

When it was known at the time the church was built a few years ago, that a crypt was built in its foundation walls, it was generally reported it was for the purpose of eventually holding the body of the founder of the Christian Science belief.

No Longer a Single Leader.

On the subject of the succession to Mrs. Eddy's place as spiritual head of Christian Science, Mr. Farlow answers to interrogatories summed up to this total: "There will no longer be a single leader, of the Christian Science Church. Through Mrs. Eddy's influence the present by-laws were framed; through the long years of her endeavors the machinery of church government was put in motion. Mrs. Eddy's death does not in the least change the complexion of the church or the operation of church machinery. Since her retirement from the active leadership in 1901 the organization which she evolved has run automatically. It will continue to do so. All matters of discipline remain with the board of directors, as in past time."

In answer to another question in regard to the direct effect of Mrs. Eddy's death upon the church, Mr. Farlow said: "The death of Mrs. Eddy is merely an incident, as viewed by the mind of the whole church; it is an incident in the history of the church. Any sorrow the people of the church may feel is less as they would feel had she gone for a long trip to a foreign country. The difference of her presence and its effect upon the souls of the people of the church is now only one of degree."

Church Not Alarmed.

"This blow which has befallen us is not of such a character as to cause any alarm or disturb the church. If the directors could have their way there would be none of this questioning and no publicity given to any of the details connected with Mrs. Eddy's taking away. The directors realize, however, that there are a great many people in the world who are eager to know the news concerning this event, and they are trying to answer questions as well as they can. There is a feeling that now is not the time to discuss in public intimate matters concerning the church and the affairs of Mrs. Eddy as related to the church."

Who will now be considered the leader or the most important person in the church? "This was one of the questions put to Mr. Farlow. "You could not get any member of the Christian Science Church to answer that question," said he, "with a smile. The whole teaching inspired by Mrs. Eddy herself, and laid down by her in her writings, encourages the elevation of the individual and the idea that there should be a leader among us. Mrs. Eddy's teachings urge the elevation of the idea over the individual."

"Mrs. Eddy was conscious until the very end," he continued, "I think that a large proportion must have gone abroad from a statement she made yesterday, and in which I said that her passing from this life was like going to sleep. So it was; it was calm and peaceful. But Mrs. Eddy preserved her consciousness until the very end, and she was able to give out any details of the scene at the death bed. That was too intimate and sacred a matter to be made public."

One report, which could not be confirmed to-day was that the directors had so far lifted the veil of mystery from the Eddy mansion in Newton as to give permission to one photographer to take a photograph of the interior of the church. An unusual feature of the attitude of the Christian Scientist toward Mrs. Eddy's death is that there will be no official church mourning, either in the Mother Church here or in any of the churches throughout the land. Nor will there be any memorial services.

MRS. STETSON NOT SEEKING LEADERSHIP OF CHURCH

New York, Dec. 5.—Rumors to the effect that followers of Mrs. Augusta E. Stetson, the deposed leader of the First Church Scientists, of New York, would take action following Mrs. Eddy's death, looking toward the reinstatement of Mrs. Stetson, or that under Mrs. Stetson's leadership a new branch of Christian Science might come into being, took a more concrete shape to-day in the report that the Stetsons would test the authority of the Christian Science board of directors to perpetuate itself and enforce the rules and by-laws of the church by quo warranto proceedings. No confirmation of this report could be obtained from Mrs. Stetson's friends.

WASHINGTON RELATIVE DREW MRS. EDDY'S WILL

That the will of the late Mrs. Mary Baker G. Eddy, founder of the Christian Science Church, was drawn up by a relative residing in Washington became known to-day. Henry W. Baker, a lawyer, with office at 141 F street northwest, is a third cousin of the dead leader, and drew up the will some time ago. He will attend the funeral.

George W. Glover, Mrs. Eddy's only son, is well known in the Capital, where he lived for several months preceding the famous litigation with his mother.

He attracted a great deal of attention by his appearance when on the streets, having wearing a large frontiersman's hat and a buffalo coat.

Christian Scientists of Washington are practically unanimous in the opinion that there will be no successor to Mrs. Eddy. The affairs of the church have been in the hands of directors for a long time, and Mrs. Eddy had nothing to do with the administration in her later years.

There will be no demonstration here over the death of the church founder. "We believe Mrs. Eddy is still living, only in another realm. We do not look upon death as others do," said W. S. Campbell, chairman of the publicity committee of the church, last night.

Policeman Fights Dismissal.

Justice Barnard yesterday issued a writ of certiorari compelling the District Commissioners to produce in the police trial board in the case of Private A. B. Clark. Relief from what is alleged to be unfair and illegal procedure, resulting in the firing and dismissing of members of the police force, is the aim of the action.

Monday Evening Club Meets.

The executive committee of the Monday Evening Club held a meeting yesterday afternoon and appointed a committee on housing and voted on twenty-seven applications for membership. At the next meeting, December 13, the speaker will be Dr. Knox, of Baltimore, who first brought to the attention of the medical world the connection between milk and infant mortality.

A solution of gum camphor in alcohol will remove ink lines from tracing cloth and leave it in better condition than if mechanical means be used.

SIGNATURES.

Some unknown friend sat down and wrote to me a kind and pleasant note. His sentiments were mighty sweet; his penmanship was plain and neat until he tried to write his name, and then a fit attacked his frame. He must have suffered fearful pain to make a drawing so insane. Methinks I see him paw the air, and bite the rungs out of his chair. I only hope that some kind soul was there to push him, with a pole, into the ice chest, there to lie until the fierce attack passed by. How sad it is so many men climb up and ride upon a pen, and splatter ink, and bust their hames, when they attempt to sign their names! The note to which I have referred—could anything be more absurd? I've studied it with tears and groans; sometimes I think the names is Jones, and then again I'd say it's Brown, with sundry letters upside down. Perhaps it's Smith; it may be Duff; I give it up—I've toiled enough. There ought to be some chloride cures for men with dizzy signatures; they make the angry passions rise, they bring hot water to the eyes, they waste the time of busy men, by their gymnastics with the pen.

ADVERTISING TALKS.

WRITTEN BY WILLIAM C. FREEMAN.

I had an interesting conversation recently with the advertising manager of a big railroad, which convinced me that the railroads—even though they are doing great advertising to-day by comparison with that which they did years ago—HAVE YET ONLY SCRATCHED THE SURFACE.

THE ADVERTISING EXPENDITURE of this particular railroad figures up only FOUR-TENTHS OF ONE PER CENT OF ITS GROSS EARNINGS! Just think of that by comparison with the 3 per cent, 4 per cent, and sometimes 5 per cent, of the gross earnings spent by big stores!

I understand that the advertising done by railroads is usually charged up to the passenger department, but I don't know why it should be, because the advertising influences the merchant and manufacturer in the matter of freight just as much as it interests the people in the matter of travel. Some of the Western railroads have recently commenced a newspaper advertising campaign, calling attention to their facilities for handling freight.

If the advertising is chargeable to the passenger department, of course the percentage is greater than four-tenths of one per cent. It is an interesting study to determine just the percentage of its gross earnings a railroad can employ in advertising.

If a railroad does a business—like the Pennsylvania, for instance—of over $10,000,000 annually, were to spend 3 per cent of its earnings in advertising, it would be $3,000,000.
